खनन उद्योगों के लिए हाई स्पीड डीजल की बिक्री पर कराधान नीति को सरल किये जाने पर उद्योगों ने राज्य सरकार का जताया आभार

बिजनेस रेमेडीज/उदयपुर। राजस्थान सरकार द्वारा प्रगति और मूल्य निर्माण की दिशा में उद्योगों के साथ-साथ कंपनियों की साझेदारी को और अधिक सशक्त बनाने के लिये अनुकूल कदम उठाया है।

उदयपुर चैम्बर ऑफ कॉमर्स एण्ड इण्डस्ट्री के संरक्षक अरविंद सिंघल ने कहा कि खनन उद्योग के लिये कोविड-19 के दौरान यह विशेष रूप से कठिन समय रहा है और खनन उद्योग एक अभूतपूर्व संकट का सामना कर रहा है। ऐसे समय में उद्योग जगत राज्य सरकार का आभारी हैं, जिसने उद्योगों की स्थिति पर ध्यान दिया और राहत प्रदान करने में राजस्थान वस्तु एवं सेवा कर अधिनियम में संशोधन करके खनन क्षेत्र को राहत प्रदान की है।

उदयपुर चेम्बर ऑफ कॉमर्स एण्ड इण्डस्ट्री के अध्यक्ष कोमल कोठारी ने बताया कि राज्य सरकार द्वारा हाई स्पीड डीजल (एचएसडी) की बिक्री पर कराधान की नीति में संशोधन किया गया है।

राजस्थान वस्तु एवं सेवा कर अधिनियम 2017 के तहत पंजीकृत निर्माताओं और ठेकेदारों को रजिस्टर्ड डीलर से एचएसडी की विक्रय प्रक्रिया में सुगमता उपलब्ध है। अब उन्हीं दिशा-निर्देशों के तहत खनन से जुड़े उद्यमों को भी शामिल कर लिया गया है। इससे पूर्व खनन से सम्बद्ध उद्यमों पर हाई स्पीड डीजल की खरीद पर वैट 26 प्रतिशत कर दिया गया था, जिसे कम करने की मांग की जा रही थी। अब राज्य सरकार ने इसमें बदलाव करते हुए खनन उद्योग के लिये भी इसे विनिर्माण क्षेत्र के बराबर किया है, जो कि नयी संशोधित नीति के अनुसार 10 प्रतिशत है। यह निश्चित ही खनन क्षेत्र के उद्यमियों के लिये एक उत्साह देने वाली खबर है जो कि इस महामारी के चलते खनन व्यवसाय के लगभग ठप्प हो जाने के कारण भारी आर्थिक बोझ उठा रहे हैं। यह एक विपदा से किसी प्रकार कम नहीं है। हमारी सरकार से आगे यह और मांग है कि पूर्व में खनन उद्योग को दी जा रही छूट को बहाल करते हुए इस दर को 10 प्रतिशत से भी घटा कर 2 प्रतिशत कर दी जाये, जिससे खनन क्षेत्र से जुड़े व्यवसायियों को इस विपदा की घड़ी में राहत मिल सके।

हिन्दुस्तान जिंक लिमिटेड के सीईओ अरूण मिश्रा ने कहा कि सरकार से खनन क्षेत्र के लिए हाई स्पीड डीजल पर टैक्स में कमी किये की मांग काफी समय लंबित थी। यूसीसीआई हाई स्पीड डीजल पर खनन कर में छूट दिए जाने के सरकार के फैसले का स्वागत करती है। उदयपुर सम्भाग के सभी खनन उद्यमों की ओर से काफी समय से लम्बित इस मांग को स्वीकार किये जाने के लिए मुख्यमंत्री अशोक गहलोत का हार्दिक आभार व्यक्त करते हैं।

सीआईआई राजस्थान के चेयरमैन संजय साबू ने राजस्थान सरकार के इस कदम का स्वागत करते हुए कहा कि हम विनिर्माण क्षेत्र के समान खनन के लिए हाई स्पीड डीजल पर टैक्सेशन में एकरूपता किये जाने के लिए राज्य सरकार का आभार व्यक्त करते हैं तथा राजस्थान के माननीय मुख्यमंत्री अशोक गहलोत द्वारा इस चुनौतीपूर्ण समय में उद्योगों के हित में लिये गये इस निर्णय की सराहना करते है। आरजीएसटी अधिनियम में संशोधन करके खनन कंपनियों द्वारा हाई स्पीड डीजल की खरीद पर देय कर में छूट देने के हमारे अनुरोध को स्वीकृति प्रदान करना राज्य सरकार का स्वागत योग्य कदम है। इससे उद्योग को महामारी के कारण उत्पन्न होने वाली विकट परिस्थितियों से बाहर निकालने में मदद मिलेगी। यूसीसीआई के अध्यक्ष कोमल कोठारी ने कहा कि कोविड-19 लॉकडाउन का सभी क्षेत्र के उद्योगों पर प्रभाव पड़ा है और राज्य सरकार द्वारा टैक्सेशन में अधिक तर्कसंगत कर व्यवस्था लाने के लिए उठाये गये कदमों से उद्योग को ब?ावा मिलेगा। यूसीसीआई उद्योगों के विकास को बढ़ावा देने के लिए सरकार के साथ काम करने के लिए तत्पर है।

बाखासर में बन्दरगाह निर्माण से औद्योगिक एवं आर्थिक विकास को लगेंगे पंख : राजस्व मंत्री

जयपुर। राजस्व मंत्री हरीश चौधरी ने मुख्यमंत्री अशोक गहलोत को अर्द्धशासकीय पत्र लिखकर बाडमेर जिले में बाखासर के रण क्षेत्र में बंदरगाह निर्माण की संभावना एवं कार्य योजना के संबंध में राज्य में कार्यरत अन्तराष्ट्रीय कम्पनीयों से तकनीकी एवं वैश्विक अनुभव का सहयोग लेकर केन्द्र सरकार के स्तर उचित कार्रवाई कराने के निर्देश देने का अनुरोध किया है। साथ ही उन्होंने वेदान्ता ग्रुप के संस्थापक अनिल अग्रवाल से उक्त संबंध में वैश्विक अनुभव का लाभ दिलाने सहित तकनीकी एवं अन्य सहयोग का अनुरोध किया है। राजस्व मंत्री ने बताया कि राज्य में नवीन चिकित्सा भवनों एवं ऑक्सीजन प्लांट्स के वर्चुअल लोकार्पण एव शिलान्यास से क्षेत्र की स्वास्थ्य सेवाओं को संबल मिला है। उन्होंने कहा कि राजस्थान-गुजरात सीमा पर बाखासर क्षेत्र के रण क्षेत्र में बन्दरगाह निर्माण करवाने से औद्योगिक एवं आर्थिक विकास को अप्रत्याशित गति मिल सकेगी। पश्चिमी राजस्थान में कच्चे तेल एवं प्राकृतिक गैस के साथ ही ग्रेनाइट, बेन्टोनाइट, लाइम, लिग्नाइट जैसे खनिज पदार्थो के भण्डार है।

महकता हुआ जीवन असापास की मनोभूमि में प्रीत के अंकुर पल्लवित करने का पराक्रम करता है और चारों ओर महकती हुई फुलवारी आंगन को अहोभाव से भर देती है, वहीं कोई उदण्ड अच्श्रृखल बनकर उभरने लगता है, तब उस उदण्डता को झेलता हुआ परिवार जख्मी होने लगता है। आत्मीयता तार-तार हो उठती है। रेशम सा मुलायम दिल भीतर ही भीतर आंसू पीने को मजबूर हो जाता है। बड़े बुजुर्ग वात्सल्य के साये में उसकी हार्दिक उदण्डता, घृणा, द्वेष, नफरत, कटुता के कांटों को निकालने में जी जान से जुट जाते हैं फिर भी जिंदगी की सादगी, स्वभाव की ताजगी आ नहीं सकती। उपकारियों का सारा प्रयास भैंस के आगे बीन बजाने जैसे ठहरता है। उसका वो रौद्र रूप खुशनुमा परिवार और महकते माहौल में बारूद का रोल अदा कर देता है। अरमानों की राख में अपनत्व की तलाश अधूरी ही रह जाती है क्या कभी आपके दिमाग में ये बात आती है- मैं ओरों को खुशियों के फूल बांटू न कि गम के कांटे। यदि हां, तो शख्सियत बनेंगे जिसकी चाहत हजारों लाखों को है।

आरटीडीसी कार्मिकों के बकाया वेतन आदि भुगतान के लिए आठ करोड़ रुपए का ब्याज मुक्त ऋण स्वीकृत

जयपुर। राजस्थान पर्यटन विकास निगम (आरटीडीसी) के कार्मिकों के जनवरी से मई 2021 की अवधि के बकाया वेतन आदि का जल्द ही भुगतान किया जाएगा। मुख्यमंत्री अशोक गहलोत ने कोविड-19 की विषम परिस्थितियों में पर्यटन कार्मिकों को राहत देने के दृष्टिगत वेतन आदि बकाया के भुगतान के लिए निगम को 8 करोड़ रुपए का ब्याज मुक्त ऋण देने के प्रस्ताव को मंजूरी दे दी है। वित्त विभाग के प्रस्ताव के अनुसार, कोविड-19 महामारी तथा आवागमन पर प्रतिबंधों के कारण आरटीडीसी की पर्यटन से जुड़ी गतिविधियां संचालित नहीं होने के चलते निगम कार्मिकों के वेतन सहित अन्य भुगतान कई माह से लंबित हैं।

ऐसे में कर्मचारियों की विषम आर्थिक परिस्थितियों को देखते हुए मुख्यमंत्री ने निगम को वेतन सहित अन्य बकाया भुगतान के लिए यह ऋण राशि देने का संवेदनशील निर्णय लिया है।

Pavlyuchenkova Reaches First Grand Slam Final

Tour veteran Anastasia Pavlyuchenkova of Russia advanced to her first Grand Slam final by beating unseeded Tamara Zidansek at the French Open on Thursday, 7-5, 6-3.

The 29-year-old Pavlyuchenkova, seeded 31st, is playing in her 52nd major tournament and her 14th French Open. She had been 0-6 in major quarterfinals before finally surmounting that hurdle on Tuesday and was steadier than the big-swinging Zidansek in their semifinal. It was only the second time in the professional era that there were four first-time Grand Slam women semifinalists at a major tournament and the first time since the 1978 Australian Open. Pavlyuchenkova, who has won 12 tour titles, will climb back into Top 20 next week for first time since January 2018.

5 Indian Women to Feature in The Hundred

India's T20I skipper Harmanpreet Kaur and teen batting sensation Shafali Verma will be representing the Manchester Originals and Birmingham Phoenix respectively in the inaugural edition of The Hundred in the UK starting on July 21. The duo will be joined by opener Smriti Mandhana, all-rounder Deepti Sharma and batswoman Jemimah Rodrigues in the 100-ball tournament involving eight men's and women's teams. While 17-year-old Verma, who is the No. 1 ranked T20 batter, joins Birmingham Phoenix as a replacement for New Zealand's Sophie Devine, Sharma will turn out for the London Spirit. Mandhana, the Indian T20 vice captain, is set to form a devastating opening partnership with England's Danni Wyatt at Southern Brave and Rodrigues will feature for Northern Superchargers. Harmanpreet, known for her explosive hitting power, will star in the opening match as she joins Manchester Originals.

Better Late Than Never

A year late, Euro 2020 finally set for lift-off under Covid cloud. Italy take on Turkey in opening game

The delayed Euro 2020 tournament will finally get underway tonight, a year behind schedule, with Covid still set to cast a shadow over the event.

The continent-wide event, first envisaged by then-UEFA president Michel Platini when he announced the tournament would be held across Europe, will be played in front of limited crowds and with strict health restrictions in place.

The action gets under way at Rome's Stadio Olimpico, where Italy take on Turkey in front of 16,000 fans.

Spain's preparations for the month-long tournament have been hit after two players, Sergio Busquets and Diego Llorente, tested positive for the virus, although Llorente on Thursday returned a negative test. The team even had to name a "parallel" squad of 17 reserve players, fearing a possible wider outbreak in the official 26-man squad.

Although captain Busquets still has Covid, Llorente's test result will allay fears that the first-choice side might have to miss Spain's opening game against Sweden in Seville on Monday.

Two Swedish players -- forward Dejan Kulusevski and midfielder Mattias Svanberg -- have also tested positive for the virus.

But despite the ongoing threat, UEFA president Aleksander Ceferin has been bullish, insisting Euro 2020 will be safe.

"It will be the first event of a global dimension to be held since the pandemic struck," he said.

"It will be the perfect opportunity to show the world that Europe is adapting. Europe is alive and celebrating life. Europe is back."

The clearest illustration of that is set to come from Budapest, where it is hoped the new Puskas Arena will be packed to capacity.

But the majority of the 11 venues, all in different countries, will only be partially-filled for matches, although Denmark on Thursday announced it would lift mask rules and allow 25,000 fans, instead of 16,000, to attend games in Copenhagen.

Munich aims to host a minimum of 14,500 fans -- around 22 percent of the Allianz Arena's capacity, the lowest of the stadiums being used.

Dublin and Bilbao were dropped from the list of hosts after being unable to give guarantees they could meet UEFA's requirement of accommodating limited numbers of spectators, but Seville stepped in for Bilbao while Dublin's games went to London and Saint Petersburg.

On the pitch, France will be firm favourites despite being one of the few traditional giants not to have any games at home. The world champions' first match is in Munich against Germany on Tuesday.

"All the other countries envy us," said a recent front page of French sports daily L'Equipe underneath pictures of Kylian Mbappe, Karim Benzema and Antoine Griezmann.

All eyes will be on 33-year-old forward Benzema, who was recalled after an international exile of five-and-a-half years following a prolific season for Real Madrid.

Holders Portugal, with a star-studded squad led by Cristiano Ronaldo, and Hungary complete a tough-looking Group F.

The other likely contenders among the 24 nations include Belgium, sweating over the fitness of key player Kevin De Bruyne after he suffered facial injuries in the Champions League final, and usual suspects Spain and Italy.

In England, there are hopes Gareth Southgate's young side could take advantage of playing most of their games at Wembley. England have never before reached a European Championship final, but captain Harry Kane believes the team will start their bid in a "better place" than they were before reaching the 2018 World Cup semi-finals.

UEFA has also demanded that Ukraine make changes to its jersey after Russia complained.

European football's governing body said the message "Glory to our Heroes", a rallying cry during the 2014 anti-Russia protests in Ukraine that is featured inside the shirt, was "clearly political in nature" and must be removed. However, the Ukrainian football association said it was in talks with UEFA to reverse its decision. The association said to AFP that "earlier UEFA had approved the new kit and every element of it, including the slogan". AFP

Buttler, Morgan Unavailability for Remainder of IPL Could Save KKR, Royals the Blushes

The likely non-participation of Eoin Morgan and Jos Buttler in the second phase of the IPL could save them from being sanctioned by their respective franchises Kolkata Knight Riders and Rajasthan Royals for posting allegedly racist tweets about Indians in 2017.

The English cricket system has been shaken after pacer Ollie Robinson got suspended by the ECB for his racist and sexist tweets about Muslims and Asians when he was 18.

The posts, in which Buttler and Morgan used the word 'sir' to mock the Indians, started doing the rounds on social media after the ECB suspended Robinson. The IPL is set to resume on September 19 in the UAE.

Jos Buttler (L) and Eoin Morgan

"KKR and RR will be in a fix as these are players earning from Indian Premier League and as late as 2017 were making fun of how Indians speak English," a senior BCCI official said.

"You can be dismissive of these posts but this also speaks about what their general perception about Indians is. It's a tricky terrain but both KKR and Royals have a way out," he said.

According to a report, "Screenshots have also been shared of a message by Buttler in which he says 'I always reply sir no1 else like me like you like me' and, separately, Morgan includes Buttler in a message which says, 'Sir you're my favourite batsman'." They were allegedly joined by KKR head coach Brendon McCullum in this conversation.

The source, who has worked as a BCCI official since the first edition of IPL, said that an "unconditional apology" is fine but beyond that, the Board and the franchises "shouldn't stretch it".

"Firstly, if Shah Rukh Khan and Manoj Badale are mindful of their respective franchises' image, a statement of apology from both Morgan and Buttler would suffice.

"Now with ECB not allowing them for second phase of IPL due to their own commitments, the suspension would count for very little. You are suspending players who are not coming for the second phase. It will be mere posturing," the official said.

Many in BCCI feel that it would only be prudent not to stir a hornet's nest as "there could well be some YouTube videos of some players making sexist remarks or body shaming others which could now come out in public domain."

While Morgan and Buttler can avoid the embarrassment by simply not showing up, things aren't as simple for McCullum. In case of McCullum, he might have to tender an apology and it will be interesting to see if the KKR management is fine with him sitting in the dug-out for the remainder of the tournament.

A Supernova Called Dingko

1998 Asian Games gold medallist passes away after long battle with cancer at 42

Poonam Mehra

He exploded on the scene like a seasoned superstar. Not many fit this description in Indian sports, especially without an Olympic medal, but then Dingko Singh was unlike most.

All of 42 and four years after losing over 70 per cent of his liver to cancer, Dingko breathed his last at his Imphal home on Thursday, leaving Indian boxing stunned and the many he inspired with a deep sense of void in their lives.

His single biggest sporting achievement was an Asian Games gold in the 1998 Bangkok edition, which was India's first in 16 years. But bigger than that was the impact he had on those who watched him outpunch two Olympic medallists that year.

He famously threatened to commit suicide after it appeared in newspapers that he had been dropped from the 1998 Asiad

"Oh my god, he was spectacular. That style was something else," recalled M C Mary Kom while talking about how she excitedly queued up to watch him fight in a show bout in Manipur after he came back from the Asiad.

For her it was like finding a hero closer home as she chased her boxing dreams.

That was the Dingko effect on a generation of accomplished north-eastern boxing stars, including M Sunranjoy Singh, L Devendro Singh and L Sarita Devi among several others.

"I never knew I had that kind of impact. I never intended to," Dingko had said back in 2010.

He couldn't be faulted for being blissfully unaware of his impact. He never really got the time to assess it.

Dingko was born to a poor family in Imphal's Sekta village and meagre resources forced his parents to leave him at a local orphanage.

It was there that scouts from the Special Area Games Scheme (SAG) started by the Sports Authority of India (SAI) first noticed the raw boxing talent in him.

Talented he definitely was, add to that mix a famously mercurial personality and it all added up to make a fearless campaigner in the ring and a daunting man to manage outside it.

"He could not be controlled by anyone. He could not be subdued by anyone," recalled Akhil Kumar, a Commonwealth games gold-medallist who has been with him in national camps.

Indian boxing got the first glimpse of Dingko's talent at the 1989 sub-junior nationals in Ambala where he became a champion as a 10-year-old.

From there began the journey of his development into a world-class bantamweight pugilist, the one who seemed ready to explode at the biggest stages, against the toughest opponents.

He famously threatened to commit suicide after it appeared in newspapers that he had been dropped from the 1998 Asiad.

He was eventually named in the squad and proved his worth with a gold, subsequently honoured with Arjuna award and the Padma Shri for that career-defining moment.

"He could be dramatic but you cannot fight with a talent like that," said Gurbax Singh Sandhu, the national coach at the Bangkok Asiad.

Dingko was said to be drunk during that pre-Asiad meltdown and alcohol proved to be his undoing after the Games as well, ultimately causing the many health issues that he battled.

Early exits from the 2000 Olympics and the 2002 Commonwealth Games left Dingko's career at crossroads.

It wasn't too long before he hung up his gloves and took to coaching at Imphal's Sports Authority of India centre.

IndiGo Plans 7-Hour Overseas Flights

MihirMishra@timesgroup.com

New Delhi: Want to holiday in Beijing, Moscow, Cairo, Nairobi, Jakarta, Manila… or perhaps eastern Europe grabs your fancy? IndiGo plans to launch overseas flights of up to seven hours duration from Delhi, Mumbai, Chennai, Bengaluru and Kolkata, some of them with its longer-range Airbus A321s.

All this depends on countries lifting Covid-related restrictions and regular international flights resuming.

"As soon as this Covid comes down, you will see us going in every direction. We were ready for it before Covid," IndiGo CEO Ronojoy Dutta told ET.

"And we have so many markets within six, seven hours… Places like Beijing, Moscow, Cairo, Nairobi, Jakarta, Manila, and all the CIS countries in between them. I am giving the outer periphery, and this is a very attractive geography."

IndiGo can launch international flights from hubs such as Delhi, Bombay, Chennai, Bangalore and Kolkata.

PLI SCHEME GUIDELINE CAPS R&D INVESTMENTS AT 15%

Telecom Gear Makers Say Norms Skewed

New Delhi: A section of multinational and local telecom gear makers said the Department of Telecommunications' (DoT) guidelines for the production-linked incentive (PLI) scheme, which factors in a maximum 15% of the R&D investments, will only help companies that don't plan on indigenous product development of telecom equipment, and will only lead to assembly.

They added that the scheme is skewed towards contract manufacturers at the cost of companies who are investing top dollars in R&D to develop products locally.

"The challenge is that the guidelines will not really meet the 'Atmanirbhar Bharat' vision since it will lead to just assembly and not the real development of telecom products in India. They (the government) are capping R&D investment at just 15%," a senior executive with a leading home-bred equipment maker told ET, asking not to be named.

Last week, the DoT issued detailed guidelines while opening up applications for telecom equipment and networking products manufacturers to apply for the PLI scheme. Under the plan, 10 large manufacturers and 10 MSMEs will be selected to receive incentives worth ₹12,195 crore over a five-year period by achieving stipulated production targets. Of this, ₹1,000 crore have been set aside for the 10 MSMEs, three out of which will be domestic companies.

The scheme will cover products such as 4G/5G next-generation radio access networks, IoT devices, customer premises equipment, routers and switches.

Investment under R&D and transfer of technology has been capped at 15% and 5%, respectively, of the total committed investment with the exclusion of manpower cost in captive R&D, which is a significant component of the costs, say executives.

FOR CASES UNDER BLACK MONEY LAW

Assessment by Investigating I-T Officials Irks Tax Practitioners

An Unusual System

IT Dept feels Investigation Wing best placed to assess black money cases

Move aimed at faster tax collection, building a stronger case

Tax experts fear there could be conflict of interest

Black Money Act came into effect on April 1, 2016

Law places the burden of proof on the assessee

Sugata.Ghosh@timesgroup.com

Mumbai: When it comes to dealing with matters under the harsh 'Black Money' law, tax authorities in India have a different rule: In many cases the Investigation Wing of the Income Tax (I-T) Department also carries out the 'assessment' — particularly, in cases where search and surveys have been conducted.

The unusual move, which has surprised those under suspicion of having undisclosed foreign assets, is aimed to quicken tax collection and build a stronger case that would stand the scrutiny of appellate bodies when taxpayers challenge the assessment orders. The procedure would be similar to the one followed by central investigation agencies like CBI and Enforcement Directorate where the final report is filed by officials who conduct the investigation.

"Black money is highly investigation oriented. This is being done on a pilot basis. There was a thought that assessment of search matters should be done by the investigation wing… Now, we will not be surprised if someone challenges the jurisdiction, complaining that the investigating officer may be biased. Assessees do pick flaws in procedures in defending themselves," a senior tax official told ET. "Often there is a gap between the investigation findings and the final outcome. Eventually, the (assessment) orders appear weaker and are unsuccessful in the dispute resolution process," said the person.

The department has activated an earlier, internal directive of the apex body CBDT giving two I-T Department arms concurrent jurisdiction.

Tax practitioners advising people who have been served notices find this strange. "The department can always argue that if the assessee has nothing to hide what difference does it make whether the assessment order is issued by investigation wing or the central circle. But there can be a conflict of interest as the person entrusted with investigation is also passing the assessment order," said a chartered accountant.
